History of the 226th Overseas Battalion

GENERAL SIR SAM HUGHES, MINISTER OF MILITIA FOR CANADA, authorised Lieut.-Colonel R. A. GILLESPIE to organise a Battalion to be raised in Northern Manitoba during the winter of 1915-16. The recruiting of this Battalion provided an opportunity of testing the "AREA SYSTEM," a new idea, originating with the MINISTER OF MILITIA. This system provided for the signing-up, billeting and training of men in detachments at their home towns until such time as CAMP HUGHES opened up.

On November 23rd, 1915, Lieut.-Colonel R. A. Gillespie signed up his first recruit, and started a campaign which proved to be one of the most successful since war was declared. A great many individuals scouted the new idea and declared it unworkable, but the Colonel's splendid organising ability dispelled all doubts on that point, and assured not only the success of the Battalion, but that it would be up to strength very quickly. On 1st April, 1916, the Battalion reached a total of over 1300, being several hundred men over strength.

Lieut.-Colonel Gillespie was one of the organisers of the 106th Regiment (Winnipeg Light Infantry), which corps has recruited and sent forward the following Battalions: 10th Battalion, 61st Battalion, 101st Battalion, 222nd Battalion, 226th Battalion; also a company each to the 27th (City of Winnipeg) Battalion and the 44th Battalion, as well as drafts to the "Princess Pat's" and other units at the front.

On June 1st, 1915, Lieut.-Colonel Gillespie accepted the position of Junior Major to the 61st Battalion, which commission he held until promoted to the command of the 226th Battalion, formerly known as AREA "B". He is a native-born Manitoban, entering the field of action in the year 1881 in the city of Winnipeg, where he received his public school and academic education. After graduating as a druggist he followed his profession in Winnipeg, operating retail stores in different sections of the city. These stores have so developed in recent years as to feature more particularly the manufacturing and jobbing end of the drug business. An ardent lover of outdoor life and successful participant in many manly sports, a natural leader of men, understanding thoroughly the life and character of the Western man, the Colonel, with his splendid military knowledge, especially in machine gun and musketry, is eminently fitted to command any Canadian Battalion, but particularly one containing so large a percentage of Western men as the 226th.

Portage la Prairie, Dauphin, Virden, Neepawa, Minnedosa, Russell, Gladstone, Shoal Lake, Glenboro, Souris, Carberry, Swan River, Birtle and Rapid City each provided a detachment. "THE MEN OF THE NORTH," or "THE GRIZZLY BEARS," as they are commonly known, have the reputation of being physically superior to any battalion in Camp Hughes; while their efficiency in physical training, bayonet fighting and musketry, is considered equal to that of any other Battalion in camp.

The men are recruited largely from agricultural districts, and the majority were born in Northern Manitoba, so the Battalion will go overseas representing CANADA in the truest sense of the word. A "Grizzly Bear" is shown on the Battalion badge, underneath which appears the following wording. 'Men of the North'—an exceedingly fitting cognomen for the Battalion.

The officers selected by Colonel Gillespie to assist in training and organising the Battalion were all well-known commercial and professional men of the province, and while no special effort was made to select men of repute in athletic circles yet the great majority of his officers excel in some particular line of sport. The prowess of the Battalion in this respect is evidenced by the fact that at the recent camp athletic meet they carried off the premier honours, and in the season's game contests they stand on a par with all competitors.

Apart from pay-day, "Visitor's Day" is the most eagerly looked for by every man in the Battalion, as that day invariably brings large numbers of welcome friends from all parts of the surrounding country. In this the Battalion has become the envy of the camp and it is doubtful if any other battalion ever attained such popularity in Camp Hughes.

The 226th Battalion consists of men recruited, in detachments, in fourteen of the towns of Northern Manitoba, and represent as fine a type of manhood as the province has ever assembled. In raising these detachments groups of men with common interests were brought together, assuring what every Battalion greatly desires, a strong feeling of good fellowship. When men were moved to camp the detachments from neighbouring towns were united to form companies. "A" Company comprising Dauphin, Swan River and Russell; "B" Company Portage la Prairie, Carberry and Gladstone; "C" Company Virden, Neepawa and Glenboro; "D" Company Minnedosa, Shoal Lake, Rapid City, Souris and Birtle.

In all these places the hospitality of the people seemed to know no bounds, and officers and men feel a deep appreciation for the long-continued expressions of good-will and oft-repeated favors. In assisting recruiting, by splendid entertainments, by magnificent gifts and in numberless other ways, they made life so pleasant that "to soldier" was "to live". Everywhere the people responded generously to the new system of billeting the soldiers in private homes; and with the happy associations of the winter months little wonder that when the order came to move to Camp Hughes on 1st June, the whole of each town turned out to say good-bye to their "own boys" of the 226th, and to wish them "God speed".

On November 23rd, 1915, Colonel Gillespie opened up his head-quarters at Dauphin, where the first detachment was recruited. Captain J. W. Skinner was placed in command of the detachment and was assisted in the work of recruiting and training by Captain C. A. Midwinter and Lieut. T. F. Mackay. Captain Skinner, formerly C.N.R. locomotive foreman in that town, is a native of Preston, England, having former military experience in Canada with the R.C.R., 28th P.L.I., and the 32nd (Manitoba) Horse. Captain Midwinter was attached to the 106th, Winnipeg Light Infantry, before receiving an appointment with the 226th. He is a Manitoban, born in Winnipeg, and is very well known, particularly amongst athletic circles, being president of the Elmwood Curling Club and associated with various other athletic bodies. Lieut. T. F. Mackay is a Scotsman, claiming Gourock as his birth-place. He was an accountant in Winnipeg and a member of the 106th W.L.I. This detachment left for camp 171 strong.

The chaplain of the Battalion comes from Dauphin. Hon. Captain F. G. Poole was born at Richmond, Ontario; educated at McMaster University, Toronto, and had three years' experience as a Y.M.C.A. chaplain in railway construction camps. At the time of his acceptance for overseas service he was pastor of the Baptist Church at Dauphin.

The detachment at Virden was formed on November 27th, 1915, with Major E. A. Alson in command. Assisting him were Captain H. Metzler, Lieut. G. H. Lee and Lieut. A. J. McLaren. Major Alson was born in Dublin, Ireland, wears the Egyptian Medal and the Khedive's Star, and has followed the military life for a great many years. He belonged to the 4th Dragoon Guards and subsequently to the 29th Border Horse. Lieut. George H. Lee is Manitoba born, claiming Newdale as his birthplace. He is very well known as an athlete, holding a number of championships. Lieut. Lee was an officer in the 106th W.L.I. Lieut. A. J. McLaren is a mining engineer; born in Buckingham, Quebec. He also came from the 106th W.L.I. Captain H. Metzler was born in Moncton, N.B. He saw service in the South African war with the 1st C.M.R. and 4th C.M.R. He belonged to the 74th N.B.R. previous to being appointed to the 226th.

Russell recruited 59 men, starting their detachment on December 10th, 1915. Lieut. W. R. W. Henderson was born in Deloraine, Man., and was a member of the 106th W.L.I. prior to appointment to the C.E.F. Lieut. P. H. Nelson was postmaster at Russell and previously served in the 32nd Manitoba Horse. He was born at Birmingham, England.

Neepawa detachment was formed on December 13th, 1915, and was placed in charge of Captain J. C. Mitchell, Lieut. N. A. Verner and Lieut. J. W. Gillespie. Captain Mitchell was born in Winnipeg and was in charge of a detachment of military police at Emerson before joining the 226th. Lieut. Verner was also born in Winnipeg and is well-known as a hockey and baseball player in that city. Lieut. J. W. Gillespie was also a prominent athlete and claims Winnipeg as his birthplace. All these officers were attached to the 106th W.L.I. before appointment to this Battalion. 140 men were raised at Neepawa.

Portage la Prairie has the distinction of raising the largest number of men in the Battalion. This detachment, under Major E. A. Deacon, was called into being on December 13th, 1915, and recruited over 200 men. Major Deacon is a barrister-at-law, born in Mattawa, Ont., and has had previous service in the 16th Field Ambulance, and 106th W.L.I. in which he took out a commission later. The officers assisting Major Deacon were: Lieut. W. B. Henry, Lieut. A. L. Stovel, and Lieut. W. C. Lowry. Lieut. Henry, born Princeton, Ont., is a university champion and is well known throughout the West. He also comes to the Battalion from the 106th W.L.I. Lieut. A. L. Stovel, born in Winnipeg, is another officer of the 106th W.L.I. and a member of a prominent Winnipeg family. Lieut. W. C. Lowry, born in Portage la Prairie, belonged to the 99th Rifles, and was accountant at Browns Limited, Portage la Prairie.

Captain C. S. B. Burley was born in Buffalo, New York, of British parents, and is a prominent business man of many years' standing in the district of Portage la Prairie. Captain Burley is Paymaster of the Battalion and his appointment received the hearty approval of all the citizens of that district.

Minnedosa raised 110 recruits under Captain H. M. Beeby, and started recruiting on December 28th, 1915. Captain Beeby was born in Yorkshire, England, and is well known in Winnipeg as a financial agent. He also is a large land owner in the province and an officer in the 106th W.L.I.

Shoal Lake, the next detachment to be formed, was organised on January 11th, 1916. Lieut. P. S. Hancock was placed in charge and a total of 57 men secured. Lieut. Hancock was born in Debrougha, Assam, India, is a member of the 12th M.D. and a prominent athlete in the province.

Swan River, the most northerly detachment, was started on January 13th, 1916, in charge of Lieut. K. W. Gordon, who was born at Vienna, Austria, where his father was stationed as a Presbyterian minister. He was a member of the 32nd Manitoba Horse. This detachment raised 92 men.

Gladstone detachment recruited 69 men and was formed on January 14th, 1916. Captain J. K. Morton, who was born in Gladstone, was placed in charge. He is a well-known athlete and is a barrister-at-law in Winnipeg. Lieut. T. C. Creery, another Gladstone-born boy, materially assisted in raising this detachment. He also is a well-known athlete in Winnipeg. Both these officers belonged to the 106th W.L.I.

Souris recruited 66 men under Lieut. W. Pace, an insurance broker of Winnipeg, who was born in Toronto Ont., and is a member of the 106 W.L.I. This detachment was started on January 6th, 1916.

Rapid City was placed in charge of Lieut. Paul Kane, another Manitoba-born man, hailing from Rathwell, Man. Fifty-three men of the 226th were raised at Rapid City.

Glenboro recruited 55 men, of a standard equal to any in the Battalion, and was in charge of Lieut. J. T. Fisher, born in Becton, Ont.—another member of the 106th W. L. I.

Carberry, the nearest detachment to Camp Hughes, was started on March 8th, 1916, under Lieut. J. W. Jarrett, who was born in Scotland. Lieut. Jarrett is another South African veteran. This detachment consisted of 46 men.

Birtle, the last detachment to be formed, was started on April 1st, 1916. Lieut. Leo S. Warde raised 27 men in this town. He was born in Winnipeg, is well known as an athlete, being a member of the Winnipeg N. E. A. A. and a member of the 106th W. L. I.

Major Ed. E. Erb was born in Preston, Ont., and was one of the original officers of the 106th W.L.I. He acted as Adjutant during the organisation of the Battalion, and visited practically all of the detachments before coming to camp. During the period of organisation Major Erb's services were invaluable. He brought with him, in addition to many years' experience as an executive in the largest printing establishment west of Toronto, an enthusiasm and energy that have contributed in no small manner to the attainment of the present enviable position of the 226th. Major Erb was appointed Second-in-Command of the Battalion in May last, and since then has been a leader in everything that has made for the efficiency of the unit and the comfort and welfare of the men. In addition to the many responsibilities of his official position Major Erb is president of the Canteen Committee, and has found time to promote and foster all forms of healthy sport and recreation—to which the present virile esprit de corps of the Battalion is largely due.

Captain V. N. Severn, well known in banking circles, is another officer born in Manitoba. He was in charge of records during the winter, and has, since coming to camp, been appointed Adjutant. Captain Severn is widely known in sporting circles.

Captain J. Young Munro was born in Coldstream, Scotland, and is well known in the province, having lived several years in Winnipeg and Virden. He has seen service in South Africa, and was a member of the 12th Manitoba Dragoons. Captain Munro is the Quartermaster of the Battalion.

Captain J. Duxbury, Medical Officer, was born in Lancashire, Eng., and has spent over 29 years in Manitoba. He was practising at Killarney prior to being appointed to the 226th.

Lieut. J. W. Jarrett of Portage la Prairie and Lieut. R. Harrison of Minnedosa left for overseas in a draft of officers during the month of September, 1916.
